Experience Designer - Motion Design, Interaction Design, Animation

📍 Kingston, London, UK | +44 07835085507 | mandipsingharora@gmail.com

I hail from New Delhi and am presently residing in London. I have a P.G Diploma in Animation Film Design from MIT Institute of Design, Pune, and have more than 6 years of cumulative work experience in the Design industry. I have worked on projects ranging from User Interface, Introductory videos, Product promotional videos and User experience design.

Currently, I'm pursuing an MA in Computer Animation from Kingston University. Prior to current studies, I have worked with IBM India as an Application Consultant and have been part of several key projects aimed towards the design-led transformation of clients. Before IBM, I had worked with Digivaasi Interactive Pvt Ltd, a social media agency based out of New Delhi, designing engaging online user experiences. I have also had the pleasure of interning with Left-right Mind, as a UX designer and Girgit Studios, as an Animation intern.
