

Education and Certifications

B.Sc. Economics & Finance, Queen Mary University of London September 2018-June 2022:

Recipient of The Scindia School and International Students House full international scholarship worth £90,000.

RELEVANT MODULES: Mathematics, Financial Accounting, Econometrics, Capital Markets and International Finance.

Summer School, Shanghai University of Finance and Economics | Grade secured: A| July 2019:

Received a full scholarship inclusive of tuition fee and accommodation to attend a 20 days long summer school in China.

Finance and Trading program Certificate, Queen Mary University of London February 2019-March 2019:

Completed a 4-week long course learning about bond markets and other financial instruments. Developed a good understanding of Bloomberg Terminal and familiarized myself with the key functions.

The Scindia School, Gwalior, India April 2016, April 2018:

CBSE Secondary Examination (GCSE equivalent): 9.6 CGPA | CBSE Senior Secondary Examination (A-level equivalent): 90%

Professional Experiences

Global Cloud Investment Banking Analyst (Part-time), New York International Capital, New York March 2020 – April 2020:

- Collaborated with teams based internationally to perform cloud-based mergers and acquisitions for global clients
- Helped the company boost global reach in Asia, Europe and US through contacting potential strategic and financial investors to propose investment deals
- Executed the given tasks efficiently across various sectors such as health, nutraceutical, childcare and medicine.

Research Intern, Mason Rak, London January 2020 – March 2020:

- Assisted in recruitment process to hire executive level tax professionals as per the requirements of our clients
- Reviewed over 200 profiles each day to identify candidates suitable for various world's leading Financial Services firms
- Managed multiple tasks simultaneously for companies like KPMG and Deloitte ensuring high quality work with great attention to detail
- Expanded global reputation of the firm through contacting candidates across the world to discuss career advancement opportunities.

Virtual Intern, CITI Bank, London September 2019:

- Analysed historical transactions and performed a discounted cash flow analysis using MS Excel as part of the company valuation process.

Virtual Intern, KPMG, London August 2019:

- Completed data quality assessment tasks using MS Excel and examined accuracy, relevance and quality of data to provided appropriate risk mitigation methods to clients.
-

Volunteering experiences

Student Ambassador, Queen Mary University of London January 2019 - Present:

- Organised open days, welcome weeks and guest lectures for the university across various campuses
- Lead and worked in teams of 8-10 to assist and handle queries from visitors of different ethnic backgrounds.

PASS Mentor, Queen Mary University of London September 2019 - Present:

- Conducted weekly teaching sessions to provide academic help to first year economics and finance students.
-

Achievements and Extra-Curricular Activities

- As member of International Round Square Service project, worked in teams to build a drainage canal for the inhabitants of a remote village in India and conducted survey to fight social problems such as girl child education etc.
 - Elected as a school prefect to ensure discipline and lead the house team in extra-curricular activities
 - Duke of Edinburgh Award (Bronze and Silver); Completed a 500 KM long cycling expedition in India.
-

Skills

IT and Other skills: MS Office Suite (Excel, Word, PowerPoint)—Proficient; Tableau, Stata, EViews –Basics; Bloomberg Terminal

Languages: English - Fluent, Hindi - Native, German - Beginner

References: Available on request